

Permanent Mission of Ireland to the UN

GRASSROOTS MATTER: ANCHORING THE SDGs IN COMMUNITY-BASED ECONOMIES

9 FEBRUARY 2016 | 1:15-2:30 PM | CONFERENCE ROOM 7 UNHQ

The 2030 Agenda for sustainable development is about putting people and planet at the center of development. Grassroots stories from 26 countries inform how that is possible.

Come to listen, learn, and build on best practices in a people-centered, participatory development paradigm: Case studies and a report from the grassroots survey.

Presenters and Locations of Case Studies

Sarah Johnson, IASSW — Overview of the Survey

Margaret O'Dwyer, DC — Fiji

Veronica Brand, RSHM — Brazil

Elsa Muttathu, IPA — India

Mr. Tim Mawe, Deputy Permanent representative to the Permanent Mission of Ireland to the UN

Guillermo Campuzano, CM, Moderator